(the “Corporation”) shall be located within or without the State of North Carolina, at such place as the Board of Directors shall from time to time designate. The Corporation may maintain additional offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may designate. The Corporation shall continuously maintain within the State of North Carolina a registered office at such place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

Section II.1 No Members. The Corporation shall have no members.

ARTICLE III

Board of Directors

Section III.1 Power of Board and Qualification of Directors. Except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Board shall manage the Corporation.

Section III.2 Number of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation shall consist of a minimum of three (3), with the number of directors constituting the Board to be determined from time to time by the Board. The minimum number of directors may be increased by amendment to the Bylaws. No decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director.

Section III.3 Election and Term of Directors. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of those persons named in the Articles of Incorporation. Such persons shall hold office until the first election of directors. Thereafter, at each annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board shall elect directors, each director to hold office for a term of three years until the next annual meeting of the directors and until his or her successor has been elected and qualified.

Section III.4 Chairperson of the Board of Directors. Every three years at the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the Board shall elect a Chairperson. The Chairperson will be responsible for running the regular and special meetings of the Corporation, and will be responsible for keeping the directors informed of the activities of the Corporation. Such Chairperson may resign at any time by giving notice to the Board. The Chairperson may appoint and delegate any Chairperson responsibilities to a Vice Chairperson. Upon a vacancy of the Chairperson, the Board may appoint a Vice Chairperson as replacement Chairperson or may elect a different replacement Chairperson by majority vote of the Directors currently serving on the Board.

Section III.5 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office though less than a quorum of the Board. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor in office and until his or her successor is elected and qualified.

Section III.6 Removal of Directors. A director may be removed with cause at any time by action of the Board, provided that such action is taken at a meeting of the Board called expressly for that purpose. Removal requires a majority of board members approval.

Section III.7 Resignations. Except as otherwise required by law, any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board or to the Executive Director or to the Secretary of the Corporation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, and unless otherwise specified therein, no acceptance of such resignation shall be necessary to make it effective.

Section III.8 Quorum of Directors and Action by the Board. Unless a greater proportion is required by law, a majority of the number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board.

Section III.9 Meetings of the Board. Meetings of the Board of Directors, regular or special, may be held at such place within or without the State of North Carolina, and upon such notice as may be prescribed by resolution of the Board of Directors.

A director's attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, excepting such attendance at a meeting by the director for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of such meeting.

Section III.10 Informal Action by Directors; Meetings by Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting if all directors consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the directors (i) may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one and the same, (ii) may be executed by facsimile signature, and a facsimile signature (which may include e-mail correspondence so long as such correspondence is received from an e-mail account the sending director has previously identified to the Secretary as the account from which such correspondence may be sent from the director) will constitute an original signature, and (iii) shall be filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any or all directors may participate in a meeting of the Board or a committee of the Board by means of conference telephone or by any means of communications by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to hear one another, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section III.11 Compensation of Directors. The Corporation shall not pay any compensation to directors for services rendered to the Corporation, except that directors may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in the performance of their duties to the Corporation, in reasonable, documented amounts.

Section III.12 Responsibilities of Board Membership. Directors are required to be present in person or by electronic medium for at least 75% of Board meetings each year. Exceptions can be waived by the Chairperson for extenuating circumstances on any given year. Directors are required to make a personal financial contribution to the Corporation each year, and are encouraged to help the Corporation fundraise by reaching out proactively to their networks.

ARTICLE IV

Committees

Section IV.1 Committees, Authority. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more directors, which committees, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation, except that no such committee shall have the authority of the Board of Directors in reference to: amended, restating or repealing the bylaws; electing, appointing, or removing any member of any such committee or any officer or director of the Corporation; amending the articles of incorporation; restating the articles of incorporation; adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorizing the sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the Corporation; authorizing the voluntary dissolution, liquidation, bankruptcy, or reorganization under the bankruptcy laws of the Corporation or revoking proceedings therefore; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the Corporation; amending, altering, or repealing any resolution of the Board of Directors; or taking any other action which may hereafter be prohibited to committees of the directors by law. This section automatically shall be amended to be consistent with the North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act's provisions relating to the authority of committees of boards of directors, as those provisions may exist from time to time. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation may be designated and appointed by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it or him or her by law.

Section IV.2 Finance and Audit Committee. In addition to committees created by the Board of Directors under this Article IV, the Corporation shall have a Finance and Audit Committee (the "Finance and Audit Committee") consisting of not less than two directors and, if practical, at least one financial expert (as determined by the Board of Directors); provided that no employee of the Corporation or the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill or any Affiliate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill may serve on the Finance and Audit Committee. The Finance and Audit Committee shall have all of the authority, powers and duties of the Board of Directors, except as provided by Section 4.01 and by law. For purposes of this Section 4.02, “Affiliate” means any individual, corporation, limited liability company, partnership or other entity that directly or indirectly controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Section IV.3 Committee Procedures. Subject to Section 4.1, the Board of Directors may provide by resolution such powers, limitations and procedures for committees as the Board of Directors deems advisable. To the extent that the Board of Directors does not establish other procedures for such a committee, each committee shall be governed by the procedures established in Sections 3.8, 3.9 (except as they relate to an annual meeting of directors), 3.10 and 3.11.

Section IV.4 Advisory Council. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate an advisory board constituting the “Advisory Council”, which shall include members who are not directors and may include one or more directors as liaisons with the Board of Directors. The Advisory Council shall serve in an advisory function only, and may take other names, such as Advisory Board.

Section IV.5 Composition of Committees. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall nominate a director of the Corporation as Chairperson of each committee of the Corporation, and also shall nominate members for each committee of the Corporation (the “Chairperson Nominees”). Each Chairperson Nominee must be approved by at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. In addition, if any committee of the Corporation fails to maintain the total number of members set forth in the Board of Directors resolution forming such committee, the chairperson of that committee shall recruit and nominate additional individuals to be elected to the committee (the “Committee Nominees”). Each Committee Nominee must be approved by at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. Each Chairperson Nominee and each Committee Nominee approved by the Board of Directors shall serve a term of one year from the date of approval on appointed committee.

ARTICLE V

Officers, Agents and Employees

Section V.1 Officers. The Board of Directors shall elect or appoint an Executive Director (who may also be the Chairperson), a Secretary and a Treasurer, and it may, if it so determines, elect or appoint other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary.

Section V.2 Term of Office and Removal. Each officer shall hold office for the term for which he or she is elected or appointed and until his or her successor has been elected or appointed and qualified. Unless otherwise provided by resolution of the Board of Directors, all officers shall be elected or appointed at the annual meeting of the Board. Any officer may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the Corporation will be served thereby; provided, however, that removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to his or her contract rights, if any, and the election or appointment of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights.

Section V.3 Powers and Duties of Officers. Subject to the control of the Board of Directors, all officers as between themselves and the Corporation shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the property and affairs of the Corporation as may be provided in these Bylaws or by resolution of the Board and, to the extent not so provided, as generally pertain to their respective offices.

A. Executive Director. The Executive Director shall serve as the chief executive officer of the Corporation. The Executive Director shall attend all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect.

B. Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors, shall give or cause to be given all notices in accordance with these Bylaws or as required by law, and, in general, shall perform all duties customary to the office of Secretary. The Secretary shall have custody of the corporate seal of the Corporation, if any; and he or she shall have authority to affix the same to any instrument requiring it; and, when so affixed, it may be attested by his or her signature. The Board of Directors may give general authority to any officer to affix the seal of the Corporation, if any, and to attest the affixing by his or her signature. The Secretary may be a director or a non-director employee of the Corporation.

C. Treasurer. The Treasurer oversees the funds and securities of the Corporation, and the overall good financial management of the Corporation, to include an annual audit and preparation of financial statements. The Treasurer may be a director or a non-director employee of the Corporation. All checks, drafts, or orders for the payment of money issued in the name of the Corporation shall be signed by the Treasurer or his or her designee.

Section V.4 Compensation of Officers, Agents and Employees. The Corporation may pay compensation in reasonable amounts to officers for services rendered, in such amounts as approved by a majority of the entire Board of Directors.

The Corporation may pay compensation in reasonable amounts to agents and employees for services rendered, such amount to be fixed by the Board or, if the Board delegates power to any officer or officers, then by such officer or officers.

The Board may require officers, agents or employees to give security for the faithful performance of their duties.

ARTICLE VI

Conflicts of Interest

Section VI.1 Director Conflict of Interest.

A. A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the Corporation in which a director of the Corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable by the Corporation solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

(1) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board and the Board of Directors or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction;

(2) The material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members entitled to vote and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(3) The transaction was fair to the corporation.

B. For purposes of subdivision A(1) of this Section, a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the Board of Directors (or on the committee) who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction, but a transaction shall not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this Section by a single director. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this Section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subdivision A(1) of this Section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subdivision.

C. The Board of Directors, by a resolution adopted by a majority of its members, may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

ARTICLE VII

Miscellaneous

Section VII.1 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the fiscal year beginning on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December or such other period as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section VII.2 Checks, Notes and Contracts. The Board of Directors shall determine who shall be authorized from time to time on the Corporation's behalf to sign checks, drafts, or other orders for payment of money; to sign acceptances, notes or other evidences of indebtedness; to enter into contracts; or to execute and deliver other documents and instruments.

Section VII.3 Books and Records to be Kept. The Corporation shall keep at its principal office in the State of North Carolina, (1) correct and complete books and records of account, and (2) minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors and any committee having any of the authority of the Board. All books and records of the Corporation may be inspected by the directors and officers or their agents or attorneys, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Section VII.4 Amendment of Articles and Bylaws. The Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority vote of the directors then in office.

Bylaws of the Corporation may be adopted, amended or repealed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section VII.5 Indemnification and Insurance. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Corporation may or may not indemnify any director or officer, any former director or officer, any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, by resolution of the Board of Directors, whether the Director was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise; and may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, indemnify any employee against any and all expenses and liabilities actually and necessarily incurred by him or her, imposed on him or her in connection with any claim, action, suit, or proceeding (whether actual or threatened, civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including appeals) to which he or she may be or is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee; subject to the limitation, however, that there shall be no indemnification in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the Corporation in which the director or officer was adjudged liable to the Corporation, or in connections with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director or officer, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which the director or officer was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director or officer.

Amounts paid in indemnification of expenses and liabilities may include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and other fees; costs and disbursements; and judgments, fines, and penalties against, and amounts paid in settlement by, such director, officer, or employee. The Corporation may advance expenses to, or where appropriate may itself, at its expense, undertake the defense of, any director, officer, or employee; provided, however, that such director, officer, or employee shall undertake to repay or to reimburse such expense if it should be ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification under this Article.

The provisions of this Article shall be applicable to claims, actions, suits, or proceedings made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after adoption hereof

The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled under any statute, Bylaw, agreement, vote of the Board of Directors, or otherwise and shall not restrict the power of the Corporation to make any indemnification permitted by law.

The Board of Directors may authorize the purchase of insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee, or other agent against any liability asserted against or incurred by him or her which arises out of such person's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent or out of acts taken in such capacity, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against that liability under law.

In no case, however, shall the Corporation indemnify, reimburse, or insure any person for any taxes imposed on such individual under chapter 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or as may hereafter be amended (the “Code”). Further, if at any time the Corporation is deemed to be a private foundation within the meaning of § 509 of the Code then, during such time, no payment shall be made under this Article if such payment would constitute an act of self-dealing or a taxable expenditure, as defined in § 4941(d) or § 4945(d), respectively, of the Code.

If any part of this Article shall be found in any action, suit, or proceeding to be invalid or ineffective, the validity and the effectiveness of the remaining parts shall not be affected.
