Community Health Volunteers (CHVs) take health education directly to residents' homes, acting as a bridge between the facilities and the community, conducting home-based health screenings, referring residents to clinics for vital healthcare services, and conducting follow-up visits with patients. Additionally, Girls' Empowerment activities cross over our two focus areas of Health and Education and are embedded across programs. CFK supports adolescent girls and young women through a dual strategy of mentorship and advocacy, using male involvement as an auxiliary approach to help promote gender equity. Recognizing females face unique challenges, CFK builds self-agency among program participants, provides them with access to a support and accountability system, and encourages them to develop and use their voices and practice leadership, creating strong sisterhoods.
