TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. CFK Africa reserves the right to withdraw the Scholarship without notice, and regularly review the scholar's progress. Scholarship holders will lose their award if they do not maintain top performance or fail to meet other prerequisites of the organization.
2. A scholarship awarded to a candidate is not transferable to any other candidate whatsoever, and the award is one scholarship per family.
3. School report forms, receipts, fee statements, and fee structures should be timely forwarded to the Lux Sit & Jim Rogers project to facilitate payment of school fees.
4. KJSEA grade shall be confirmed from KNEC before the award of the scholarship.
5. All beneficiaries of the Lux Sit & Jim Rogers scholarship project will be expected to participate in CFK Africa's programs and carry out community service, and volunteer with the organization for a minimum of two years after high school.
6. Any applicant who gives false information or submits fake documentation in support of the scholarship request shall be liable to disqualification and prosecution.
7. The scholarship is strictly for school fees, and the parent/guardian(s) should be able to support the applicants' other school needs and will actively participate in the child's education.
